

AUTHORIZATION FOR RELEASE OF EDUCATIONAL RECORDS

Carefully read the information below.

After completing this form, submit it to the New York City Department of Education to release educational records pertaining to your child or you.

In accordance with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 ("FERPA"), the New York City Department of Education must obtain written consent from a parent or eligible student before disclosing a student's educational records containing personally identifiable information. (An eligible student is someone who has reached 18 years of age or is attending an institution of postsecondary education.) To have such educational records for your child or you disclosed, you must do the following:

1. sign and date this form;
2. specify which records are to be disclosed;
3. identify the parties or class of parties to whom the disclosure may be made; and
4. provide the purpose of or reason for the disclosure.

You may also request that the New York City Department of Education provide you and/or the student with a copy of the records disclosed.
